In January of 2014 the Missouri Supreme Court made a ruling in one of its cases it stated, "Any non-custodial parent receiving Social Security, or veterans benefits, and paying child support, any dollar amount of these benefits are to be credited by Child Support Enforcement because of this decision it was determined that they would eliminate an income withholding order and give me credit from Jan, 2014 - Jan-2013.

I went to child support enforcement after three to four months of waiting for them to do it themselves and CSE continually extorting my social security benefits.

They only paid me one month of benefits that they had not sent out already, when it was decided in January 2014 that they terminate the income withholding order neither did they have it documented that I was to be credited for my overpayment which was longer than one year, the extortion lasted from December 2009 - March or April 2014 from my wifes child support order in which I did not receive a hearing and I was incarcerated at a state facility where I could be found.

Child Support Enforcement and its state officials, all public officers, took monies in the amount of $85.00 a month that were not due them or their officers. This is extortion that amounts to General, Compensatory, and Punitive Damages, and violates the Fourth Amendment.

V. Relief: State briefly and exactly what you want the Court to do for you.
